

If highway safety is an issue in the united states. then xm radio needs to not be hamstrung by huge conglomereets of tv and radio owners and political contributions. Weather and news reports are essential to truckers who haul the nations goods across the usa and keep the citizens supplied with their needs, which includes huge conglomerets and politicians.